Crawford County Genealogy Society

FAIRVIEW CEMETERY, ENGLEVALE, KANSAS

Located about mid-way along the N side of Sect. 25, Twp 28S, Rg. 24E. This is just to the S of the county mile road along the N side of above section, just to the E of the cem., the road curves to the NE to Englevale about $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ mi. away.

The cem. is long N-S and narrow E-W. It is well fenced and attended. There are 2 gates along the road, with a driveway going straight S to the end of the cem. from each gate, and these 2 drives are connected at the S end, dividing the cem. into 3 long N-S sections.

The section W of the W driveway has 3 long N-S rows of graves, as does the one E of the E drive. The section between the driveways has 4 long N-S rows.

We began copying on the W row, so rows 1, 2 & 3 are in the W section; rows 4, 5, 6 & 7 are in the center section, and rows 8, 9 & 10 are in the E section.

Three persons buried here died in 1876, the earliest year of death found, and only 2 others predate 1880:

- 1876 Judith, wife of Skirrow Simpson
- 1876 Jessie P. Cory (child)
- 1876 Eld. Wm. Konkell, a minister of the Church of God
- 1877 Harriet Davidson (child)
- 1879 James Reed Davidson (child)
