NEW BUSINESS

Item One: Dr. Steve Scott spoke to the commissioners about his upcoming retirement. He talked about the many projects that the county and Pittsburg State collaborated on during his time as university president. Dr. Scott said he cares about the community and will continue to work on important issues facing our county, such as childcare and expanding healthcare. He stated that Dr. Dan Shipp is named to be the 10th president of PSU and will start on June 6th. Commissioner Moody thanked Dr. Scott for being approachable and good to the community and Commissioner Johnson said Dr. Scott's leadership has been transformational for our area.

OLD BUSINESS:

Item One: County Councilor Jim Emerson announced that there will not be a quorum for the June 3rd meeting, so the work session to discuss the employee handbook will need to be rescheduled for June 7th. Mr. Emerson also noted that Mr. Mark Lehman with the Conservation District was also going to present the budget on June 3rd, so he will be rescheduled as well.
